OFFICE OF THE STATE PROSECUTOR

On May 31, 2006, Gregory Allen Bryan was sentenced for his involvement in a theft scheme from the Cecil County government.

Mr. Bryan pled guilty to one count of Conspiracy to Commit Theft on January 17, 2006, and agreed to cooperate with the Office of the State Prosecutor in its continued investigation and prosecution of Christopher Joel Vanover, a former Cecil County Information Technology department employee (who has subsequently pled guilty to theft and bribery and is currently awaiting sentencing).

In return for his cooperation with the State, Mr. Bryan was permitted to request that the Court grant him Probation Before Judgment, and today a Cecil County Circuit Court Judge granted that request. The Court ordered that Mr. Bryan be on supervised probation for 2 years, that he perform 300 hours of community service, that he pay a $5,000 fine, and make restitution to the Cecil County government.
